FOURTH QUARTER EVENT
REIAC/GSU HALL OF DISTINCTION

Steve Selig Added to Program

November 17, 2011

The Real Estate Investment Advisory Council and Georgia State University's J. Mack Robinson College of Business are pleased to announce Mr. Charles S. Ackerman as our 2011 Hall of Distinction inductee.

We invite you to join us on November 17th, 2011 at the Westin Buckhead for this, our seventh annual REIAC/GSU Hall of Distinction award presentation. Prior honorees have included Egbert Perry (2010), Leo Wells III (2009), Hal Barry (2008), Steve Selig (2007), Jim Borders (2006) and Jim Jacoby (2005). The Hall of Distinction is the highest honor given by REIAC and was conceived in 2005 to recognize the people and commercial real estate projects that have made the most dramatic impact on Metro Atlanta.

As you will hear on November 17th, Charles Ackerman's life and his dedication to Atlanta's growth provide a remarkable story. Over the past 40 years, as Founder and Chairman of the Board of Ackerman & Company, Charles has succeeded in establishing one of the Southeast's most creative and productive, full-service real estate firms. In doing so, he has developed more than six million square feet of office, retail and residential projects.

Our program format will feature an on-stage interview by Mr. Doug Sams, Real Estate Reporter for the Atlanta Business Chronicle, and newly-added guest speaker Steve Selig, President and Chairman of the Board of Selig Enterprises, Inc.

Each year, the REIAC/GSU Hall of Distinction award program is a heavily attended festivity that is open to the entire commercial real estate community, not just REIAC members. We hope you will join us for this fun and informative celebration. As always, food and drink will be provided following the program.

Best Regards,
Jerry Monash, CCIM, President
